Certificate 181966)

SUMMARY OF THE CASE

The South Carolina State Board of Education (State Board) considered this matter on January 9, 2008. On May 1, 2007, the State Department of Education (Department) sent Teresa J. Pye-Mann a notice of her right to a hearing regarding the possible suspension of her South Carolina educator certificate. Upon receipt of the notice, Ms. Pye-Mann agreed to waive her right to a hearing and entered into a payment plan. The Department then sent Ms. Pye-Mann a repayment agreement. Ms. Pye-Mann signed the agreement on July 18, 2007. The signed repayment agreement and an initial payment of $100.00 were received by the Department on July 25, 2007. On August 10, 2007, Ms. Pye-Mann made an additional payment of $100.00. Thereafter, Ms. Pye-Mann failed to comply with the terms of the repayment agreement. Ms. Pye-Mann has not repaid the remaining balance of $950.00 which is now due. After considering the information presented, the State Board voted to suspend Ms. Pye-Mann's certificate until she repays the full amount owed on her outstanding loan with the State of South Carolina obtained through the Center for Teacher Education, Recruitment, Retention and Advancement (CERRA).

FINDINGS OF FACT

Ms. Pye-Mann holds a valid South Carolina educator certificate and has over nine years of teaching experience. On September 18, 2001, Ms. Pye-Mann signed a promissory note with the State of South Carolina to obtain a loan of $2300 to pay for the costs of applying for certification from the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards (NBPTS). One of the terms of that promissory note was that the loan recipient would be obligated to repay one half of the loan amount, $1150, if after participation in the process for one year, she did not continue or otherwise successfully complete the process of obtaining NBPTS certification. Under this term of the agreement, Ms. Pye-Mann Williams is now obligated to repay the $1150. CERRA and the State Department of Education sent several letters to Ms. Pye-Mann informing her that the $1150 was due and of the consequences for failing to repay the amount due. After receiving notice of the possible suspension of her educator certificate, Ms. Pye-Mann agreed to waive her right to a hearing and entered into a repayment agreement. Ms. Pye-Mann executed her repayment agreement on July 18, 2007. The signed repayment agreement and an initial payment of $100.00 were received by the Department on July 25, 2007. Ms. Pye-Mann submitted one subsequent payment of $100.00 that was received by the Department on August 10, 2007. Thereafter, Ms. Pye-Mann failed to comply with the terms of the repayment agreement. Ms. Pye-Mann has not repaid the remaining balance of $950.00 that is due.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The State Board may suspend the certificate of any person for unprofessional conduct. S.C. Code Ann. §§ 59-25-150 and 160 (2004). The State Board finds that there is sufficient information to support its decision to suspend Ms. Pye-Mann's educator certificate from the date of this Order until she has satisfied her remaining financial obligation to the State of South Carolina, as established in the promissory note referenced above. Upon full payment of the balance due, if Ms. Pye-Mann wishes to have her certificate reinstated, she may make a written request for reinstatement to the Office of Educator Certification of the Department of Education.
